MUNROE TO FIGHT BEFORE TOWNSMEN

The bout between Tom Sharkey and lack Munroe, the miner, will be fought before the Broadway A. C., of Butte, Miont, some time in July. Both fighter have accepted the club's offer of a surse of $10,000 and have asked the matchinaker of the club, Guy Adams, to forward them the articles of agreement.

The bridegroom's only attendant was Ernest A. Sterling, Cornell '02, a lifelong friend of the great pitcher.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Stoughton residence. Mathewson's popularity among his fraternity brothers and other friends in Bucknell University here caused him to become the victim of many jokes. After the ceremony he was enticed into a carriage drawn by a team garbed
